Tasting notes: While the nose is slow to express itself, the palate immediately bursts with crisp, tart apple, with fresh, green pear, with ripe but zesty citrus. There is an innate lightness and lovely depth in this unforced, honest and utterly refreshing wine. It comes on light feet and draws you in with its fresh-faced authenticity. More please. Serve with: This wine displays a multi-layered bouquet ranging from fruity notes like stone fruits, quinces and peaches via herbs to mineralic notes and is therefore an ideal partner for a wide range of international meals. Because of the complex structure and the full body, this wine can be also matched with hearty and spicy food.
